

Theta Delta Chi

IDEALS OF friendship held by six undergraduates of Union College, Schenectady, New York, namely: Abel Beach, Theodore B. Brown, Andrew H. Green, William Hyslop, William Akin, and Samuel F. Wile, all of the class of '49, crystallized into the Theta Delta Chi fraternity on October 31, 1847. This date is annually commemorated by the members of Theta Delta Chi the world over. This fraternity was the eleventh to be founded and sixth organized at Union College. A conservative policy in regard to expansion has always been maintained and charges have only been established at colleges which were most conducive to the fraternity spirit. Theta Delta Chi now has twenty-eight active charges.

In 1903 a number of Tech students organized a local fraternity, Alpha Epsilon, with the specific purpose of re-establishing Theta Deuteron. Living quarters were first obtained on Gloucester Street and later at 262 Newbury Street. Being firmly oriented, the society petitioned for re-admission into the national organization. A charter was granted in June 1906 and the members of Alpha Epsilon were initiated into Theta Delta Chi.

The fraternity moved to 80 Bay State Road in 1910 and from there to 334 Harvard Street in Cambridge in 1916. The latter abode proved to be very pleasant, but by 1925 the house was seen to be inadequate and plans were made to secure a new one more convenient to the Institute. These plans matured in 1930 when the charge moved to its present location at 314 Memorial Drive.
